The Government of Iraq has received financing from the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) (the “Bank”) in the form of a loan toward the cost of the Baghdad Water Supply and Sewerage Improvement Project. The Mayorality of Baghdad (MOB), the implementing agency of the Borrower, intends to apply part of the proceeds toward payments under the contract for consulting services aiming at the Construction Supervision and related services on the Construction of the (R2) Reservoir and five water network renewals in five districts in Baghdad.

The Mayorality of Baghdad (MoB) intends to shortlist qualified consulting firms or consortiums to provide consultancy services for the aforementioned works. Services include the provision of the necessary technical assistance to the MoB, the review of the designs, the supervision of the construction works, the monitoring and reporting of the project progress, the compilation of the full set of as-built drawings of all completed works and the relevant contract management.

The construction of the projects is about 36 months for the R2 reservoir and different dates for the water networks, inclusive in the 36 months period. This period includes the defect liability periods.

The MoB now invites eligible consulting firms or consortiums to express interest in providing the aforementioned services. Interested consultants must provide information indicating their qualifications and capability to perform the services (organization structure; general experience; experience in the region; similar assignments). Submitted profiles must be limited to a maximum of 30 pages and must include the full coordinates of the Consulting firm(s).

A short list of consultants shall be selected in accordance with the procedures set out in the guidelines for the selection of Consultants by World Bank borrowers. The short listed consulting firms / Consortiums shall be invited to respond to a RFP and consulting firm/consortium shall be selected in accordance with the Quality Cost based election (QCBS) method.

Interested consulting firms/consortiums may obtain further information at the address below from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

The Deadline for receiving Expression of Interests is February 24, 2020 at 13:00 Baghdad local time.

Expressions of interest must be delivered to the below address. Electronic EOI are acceptable.
